Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This weekend we joyfully welcome Paul McWilliams our new Director of Music. He comes as the answer to the prayers of our Parish Community. I'm glad to say that Paul comes with a lot of enthusiasm and good will; with much qualification and experience. I'm sure that you'll welcome Paul with open arms, minds and hearts.

I welcome you to connect with him in the days to come and share with him your ideas and thoughts on our Parish Community, our Liturgical Worship and other matters that may be important to you. Do hold Paul, our new Music Director, in your prayers as he transitions into his new role as the new Music Director of our Parish Community.

As the Pastoral leadership, I wish Paul the very best that our Community has to offer. May he enjoy many years ministry in our Parish Community.
